Restaurants

- 1 Mercado San Anton
Augusto Figueroa, 24, Madrid, Spain

This market has become, in a very short period of time, the new hot spot in the city. The building was reformed and reopened recently, giving the district (Chueca) a new vibe. So you will find that t...

Bars / Clubs

- 2 Gabana 1800
Calle de Velázquez 6, Madrid, Spain

Gabana is definitely one of the most famous clubs in Madrid, and has been like this for some time now. Located in the beginning of Calle Velazquez, next to Retiro parc, it has often a long queue in fro...

Activities

- 3 Parque del Retiro
Placa de la independencia, Madrid, Madrid, Spain

One of the strongest memories I have from Madrid is definitely Parque del Retiro, an absolutly beautiful city parc in the heart of Madrid. Retiro with its 1.4 km² (350 acres) is a huge green spot in ...

- 4 Cathedral de la Almudena
Calle de Bailén, Madrid, Spain, Madrid, Spain

It's very surprising to know that Madrid did'nt have a Cathedral until the 20th Century. The reason is that Toledo which used to be the Capital until 1561 had it's own Cathedral, and continued "resist...

- 5 Puerta del Sol
Puerta del Sol, Madrid, Madrid, Spain

One of the busiest plazas of Madrid which occupied at several stages an important political role in the city's history. Puerta del Sol is the Kilometer 0 of all Spanish national roads and holds the sy...

6 Plaza de Cibeles

Plaza de Cibeles, Madrid, Spain

This is one of the main landmarks in Madrid, and the fountain in the Middle, named after Cybele (or Ceres), Roman goddess of fertility, is seen as one of Madrid's most important symbols. Real Madrid...

7 Plaza de Santa Ana

Plaza de Santa Ana, Madrid, Madrid, Spain

Here's one of my favourite places in Madrid where I like to chill out in the evening, at one of the nice restaurants' terrazas around the square. The beautiful Statue of the man holding a bird is ...
